

Impact Of Planets On Career

According to astrology, if the planets are not in auspicious position in the horoscope then the person has to face many problems in business and job. If the planets responsible for the job are not in an auspicious position in a person's horoscope, then the person has to face repeated problems in the job. Let us know which are the planets in the horoscope that affect business and jobs and what would be auspicious to do to strengthen them.

Sun

According to Career astrology, if the position of the Sun in the horoscope is not good or there is the influence of any inauspicious planet on it, then the person will not succeed in the administrative field. Even if the person is working in the administrative field, he will have to face many problems. In such a situation, a person should worship the Sun God.

Moon

If the Moon is in an inauspicious position in a person's horoscope, it may cause problems in jobs and business. In such a situation, a person should take measures to pacify the Moon as per his zodiac sign.

Mars

Mars has been given the position of commander in the planetary system. It has complete control over the fire element. He has special authority over management. If this planet in the horoscope is related to the house related to business, then such people work in the army, police, power plants, etc. Mars is considered a planet related to technology. This planet also leads in work related to engineering and construction. ,

Mercury

Due to the inauspicious position of Mercury, there may be problems in jobs and business. Due to this, the person has to face problems like conflict in communication, losing opportunities, etc.

Jupiter

If Jupiter is in an inauspicious position in the horoscope then there may be problems in job and business. To avoid this, a person should chant the Guru Mantra daily and do remedies related to Jupiter, like worshiping Lord Jupiter on Thursday. With this, a person can be successful in the job.

Venus

If there is an influence of Venus then one should choose media, mass communication, singing, and playing. Venus is considered the planet of art. Especially in the field of media, whether it is news or acting etc., media is a suitable field for such people.

Saturn

It is said that if Saturn is not in an auspicious position in the horoscope then the person has to face a lot of difficulties in job and business. In such a situation, to strengthen the planet Saturn in the horoscope, one should wear sapphire gemstones on Saturday to worship Shani Dev and for peace. This can provide relief to the person from the problems he is facing in his job.

Rahu

This planet has been given the post of demon commander. This planet has a special connection with mystery, conspiracy, and shadow. This planet has a special relation to politics. By connecting with the state, it takes a person to a higher position in politics.

Ketu

This is the torso of the planet Rahu, so it has all the attributes of a demon commander except the head. That is why all the work like dissection, operation, guidance, etc. are seen from this planet.

Conclusion

Every person wants comfort and convenience in life for which he needs a good job. So that he can fulfill all the needs of his life. Also, he should get a career that he likes. We give the best education to children. They teach in the most expensive schools, but children decide much later in which field they want to make their career. Before participating in the race, we should know what our destination is. If you have any career-related questions then you can Online Astrology Consultation.